

Key Issue #1: Where Did Agriculture Originate? (Page 337)

1. Define the following:
 - a. Agriculture:
 - b. Hunting & Gathering:
 - c. Vegetative Planting:
 - d. Seed Agriculture:

2. Describe Carl Sauer's beliefs about the origins of vegetative and seed agriculture.

3. List and discuss the five principal features that distinguish subsistence agriculture from commercial agriculture.
 - a. _____:
 - b. _____:

c. _____:

d. _____:

e. _____:

4. Define agribusiness.

4.

5. What was Derwent Whittlesey's contribution to agricultural geography?

5.

Key Issue #2: Where are Agricultural Regions in LDCs? (p. 344)

Type:	Shifting Cultivation	Pastoral Nomadism	Intensive Subsistence – wet rice dominant	Intensive Subsistence – wet rice not dominant	Plantation (found in Reading #3)
Where Practiced:
Percentages:
Crops Grown:
Brief description

Key Issue #3: Where are Agricultural Regions in MDCs? (p. 351)

Mixed Crop and Livestock	Dairy	Grain	Livestock Ranching	Mediterranean	Commercial Gardening (Truck)

Key Issue #4: Why Does Agriculture Vary Among Regions? (P. 359)

1. Explain how each of the following help explain differences among agricultural regions.

a. Environmental & Cultural Factors:

a.

b. How has population affected subsistence farmers:

b.

c. Economic Issues for Commercial Farmers:

c.

1. Explain von Thunen's model for selecting an agricultural activity.

1.

2. How does overproduction of food affect commercial farming?

2.

3. How does government policies attack the problem of excess production?

3.a.

b.

c.

Unit Five: Agricultural & Rural Land Use

Chapter Fourteen: Resource Issues

Key Issue #3: Why Are Global Food Resources Expandable? (P. 508 - 514)

1. List and discuss four strategies to increase the world's food supply:

1. a.

1. b.

1. c.

1. d.

2. Describe Africa's food supply crisis.

2.